

Petaluma People Services Center

"Dedicated to improving the social and economic health of our community by providing programs that strengthen the dignity and self-sufficiency of the individual."

Cooperative Parenting classes are for parents who are either divorced or in the process of divorcing. The class focuses on reducing parental conflict and addresses the factors that influence children's post-divorce adjustment. Divorce is hard on everyone involved, but with proper education parents are better able to work together and focus on the best interest of the children. Parenting is forever—family relationships do not disappear when a marriage ends in separation or divorce.
